

To Soar for Christ...

The Eagle Edition

An Emperor Exposed

This year Jim Elliot Christian High School's drama department will offer it's take on the beloved children's classic story, The Emperor's New Clothes, with it's own An Emperor Exposed. The kingdom of New Topia, simple and wonderful, is being torn apart by the conniving and greedy escapades of the dastardly Dardalas and his side-kick, Vashti. The lives of the people of New Topia along with their king, King Joseph IV and his love, Eleanor, are turned upside down as they struggle to hold on to the principles that have always made New Topia so very special.

The cast of 19 includes not only 7 seasoned seniors and juniors, but also 12 students for whom this will be their first high school play experience. JECHS will be performing the comedy An Emperor Exposed, May 6 & 7. Performance times will be at 7:00 pm each night with an additional 2:00 pm matinee on Saturday, May 7. Tickets are $7 for adults and $5 for students. Children 5 and under are free.

Staff Appreciation Week May 9 - 13, 2011

This will be a special week to let our school staff know how much we appreciate them. Many of you have volunteered to help and have sent in donations. Thanks so much – for those who would still like to donate or volunteer food items, we are still accepting.

All School Awards Night

A very special evening is planned to honor our students on Wednesday, May 18, at 7 pm in the Temple Baptist Worship Center. The evening will include awards from local community organizations, JECHS recognition, and college scholarships. Each subject area will acknowledge the top academic student as well as the student who gave his or her best. Students who have excelled in leadership and service will also receive recognition. The Golden Eagle Award will be presented to the top male and female athlete. We will also find out who each class voted to receive the Christian Character Awards.

Graduation 2011

Everyone is invited to the JECHS 2011 Commencement Exercises, Saturday, May 28, 3 pm, in the Temple Baptist Worship Center. Seating on the main floor is reserved for 10 family and guests of the graduating seniors. The mezzanine is open seating for everyone. Plan to arrive early enough to be seated before the graduates march in at 3 pm sharp.
